

THE CONTACTS OF

The trend towards developing was so strong that even Varenée—who a was swept along in the current. His

—

in general, the fulfilment of changes by Ms but his own contribution was the revival of

He found that Aimamite vElages were willing to the
of buildings and instructors if they were by TMs
co-operation with its restoration of commuaal bath psychologically and financially, it for tlje first time feasible. The curricula were to the group and language, and it was no longer the of fancy on the part of a distant Metropolitan mind.

Solving the problem of higher was plicated. At the outset had come a of the school strike had occurred at Hu6 in 1909, and at the

had been no convenient Bolshevism OE to lay the only a small percentage of teachers had the of students, but it was enough to the to the problem of secondary education to the current Always in Aimam discontent has been evidenced by than mdividBal protests.

The treatment of the strikers in 1926-27 bat Oa the anniversary of Phan Chan Teak's the in crape bands. Instead of it If m a symbol of revolt. The head of tore off one of these bauds and oa it. out in the colony, but the in Hie Aimamites the in if oof

in principle, were closed to<sup>1</sup> Item; French t number of that
for

and not for the Annamites. At the in 341 Annamites out of 731 pupils. The had oaly 180 and They the in be

the
of in the
was not This of study, and by the beyonct the age for <m their
An end be put to the